FULLY ALIVE

This Bible study was written specifically for you – students involved in Greek life. College is an awesome time in many people lives and your experiences in Greek life can definitely add to the adventures. There are also some unique challenges in Greek life that can pose threats to becoming fully alive. In this study you will explore six different topics that relate to you in Greek life. You'll reflect on your own viewpoints as well as study what God and His Church have to say on these topics. Lastly, you will get some practical points on how to live an integrated life and embrace being fully alive in each of these areas.

This Bible study finds its root in the Gospel, that God desires a relationship with each one of us so much that Jesus came to earth and died on the cross in order to set right the relationship between God and Man so we could have eternal life with him in heaven. This study grows from the root of the Gospel and considers the moral and philosophical implications of a God who so radically loves us.

I CAME THAT THEY MIGHT

JESUS | JOHN 10:10

Many people want to view Christians as people who adhere to moral principles and try to be good people. While it's true that Christians are striving to be the best versions of themselves, that striving isn't an end in itself, but the result of a life surrendered to Jesus Christ. Your Bible study leader will bring you back to this simple Gospel message as you walk through the varying topics that make up this bible study. It's the foundation. It's the only thing that makes everything else in this study and in Christianity make sense. It's the one message that will eternally make you fully alive.
